UNION STOCKYARDS, INDIANAPOLIS, April 15.-Hogs-The opinions of salesmen, as well as buyers, were very much alike concerning the hog market to-day, and it was generally a imitted that a loss of 5c in prices was suffered. The market was supported by practically all buyers and the demand was very fair from both local and outside sources, but it seemed that the supply was large enough to meet the requirements, and, as usual on a declining market, the trading was a trifle sluggish. It can hardly be said, however, that the market was slow, and rather early in the day a good clearance had been made. It is possible that some of the less desirable hogs in isolated cases were 10c lower. but there were hardly enough of such sales to affect the general average to any quotable extent. There were not very many late arrivals to-day-in fact, hardly enough to affect the market in any way-and the close was reported steady at the decline. Sales ranged from $5 to $5.35, and the bulk of the supply sold at $5.1000 advance over yesterday the results evidently were generally fairly satisfactory. The trading was not quite as active as it might otherwise have been, because salesmen were trying to ad vance values, but the demand was about equal to the supply and a satisfactory clearance was finally made. Buyers were more particular as to quality and condition than weight, and were rather inclined to discriminate against the fair to medium butcher steers. This, of course, made the outlet slow, but salesmen finally sucneeded in preventing very much, if any, change in prices. The country demand for feeding cattle was again rather disappointing, and the trade in this department was at barely steady prices. There seemed to be a very good demand for the good thick cows and heifers, but between kinds, especially the heifers that were a little thin in flesh, did not sell quite as strong as they have the past few days. The bull market appears to have been steady. The calf market was from 25c to 50c lower, with probably most of the supply 50c below yesterday. Quotations:

ep-There was not much variety in the consignments of sheep and lambs to-day, and, as usual for a long time past, it was impossible to develop the condition of the market for all kinds y actual sales. There were not enough here to invite competition from all buyers, and necesicated that the market was at least steady or such as were offered. Most of the supply were wool lambs averaging 80 lbs, that sold at nd bucks sold at $363.50. At this time in the week, or, rather, for the balance of the week, It is hardly expected that there will be any imrtant demand, and probably small supplies fill suffice. WEEK'S PACKING OF HOGS

Cincinnati Price Current.-There has been come decrease in offerings of hogs compared with the preceding week, but the number exceeds the corresponding time last year. Total Western packing, 355,000, compared with 420,000 the preceding week. For corresponding time last year the number was 310,000. From March 1 the total is 2,230,000, against 2,050,000 a year ago, an increase of 180,000. The quality is rather more variable, but mostly good. Prices at the close average lower than a week ago, prominent markets indicating a general average d about $5.10 per 100 lbs. The Price Current investigation in regard to robable supplies of hogs for marketing from rch 1 to Nov. 1 indicates a moderate gain in ompared with last year, and that prior to July 1 there will likely be as much relative were moderate.

The receipts of stock thus far this week show a decrease of over 2,000 hogs, an increase of 300 cattle and 250 sheep compared with the same time last week, and little change in hogs, an increase of nearly 300 cattle and a decrease of 230 sheep compared with the corresponding time a year ago. The general fat cattle market was steady to strong yesterday, she and lambs were steady, and sales of hogs were generally 5c lower.

Combined receipts of hogs for five days represent a decrease of over 2,000 compared with the same time last week, and very little change larger than a week ago, and show about the same change compared with a year ago. + + +

One small lot of hogs averaging over 300 lbs, that was probably 5c better than anything here Thursday, sold at $5.35 yesterday, and only two sales were made as high as $5.32½. Well-shaped hogs averaging usually upward of 225 lbs sold as high as $5.30, and other sales of loads averaging around 190 lbs and upward, that were more or less on the mixed order, ranged from $5.10 to $5.25, and no doubt a number of mixed hogs at | possibilities of the road. LAKE SHORE PROSPEROUS

MAKES A GOOD EXHIBIT FOR THE FIRST QUARTER OF 1904.

Meetings of Southern Pacific Lines-Prospects that the Western Grain Rate War Will Be Settled.

The quarterly report of the Lake Shore Railway, which has just been issued, shows that the company's income decreased in the three months ending March 31 $31,000, but the decrease is so slight compared with the gross receipts that it can only be called compared with the corresponding time a year nominal, as that amount of money really amounts to nothing to the Lake Shore. The statement seems all the more remarkable when the situation through which the road has passed is reviewed. The year opened through January, February and March, doing considerable damage to the operating fic officials makes the statement that this shows that the railroad is prosperous and The marketing of cattle this week has been that the business of the country is not suffering from the declines which have been noticed in iron and steel and some other branches of trade. With one line of business passing out of vogue it is merely giving place to other lines, and the railroads are given all the freight they can handle promptly. One of the strongest demonstrations of the situation is that while the loadof only fair volume, the total thus far this week | ed car movement has fallen off, owing to showing an increase of only about 250 compared | the high class of freight handled the earu-
